

*Experience the true light that came into the world
which is the celebration of Christmas!*

Lights on the Hill

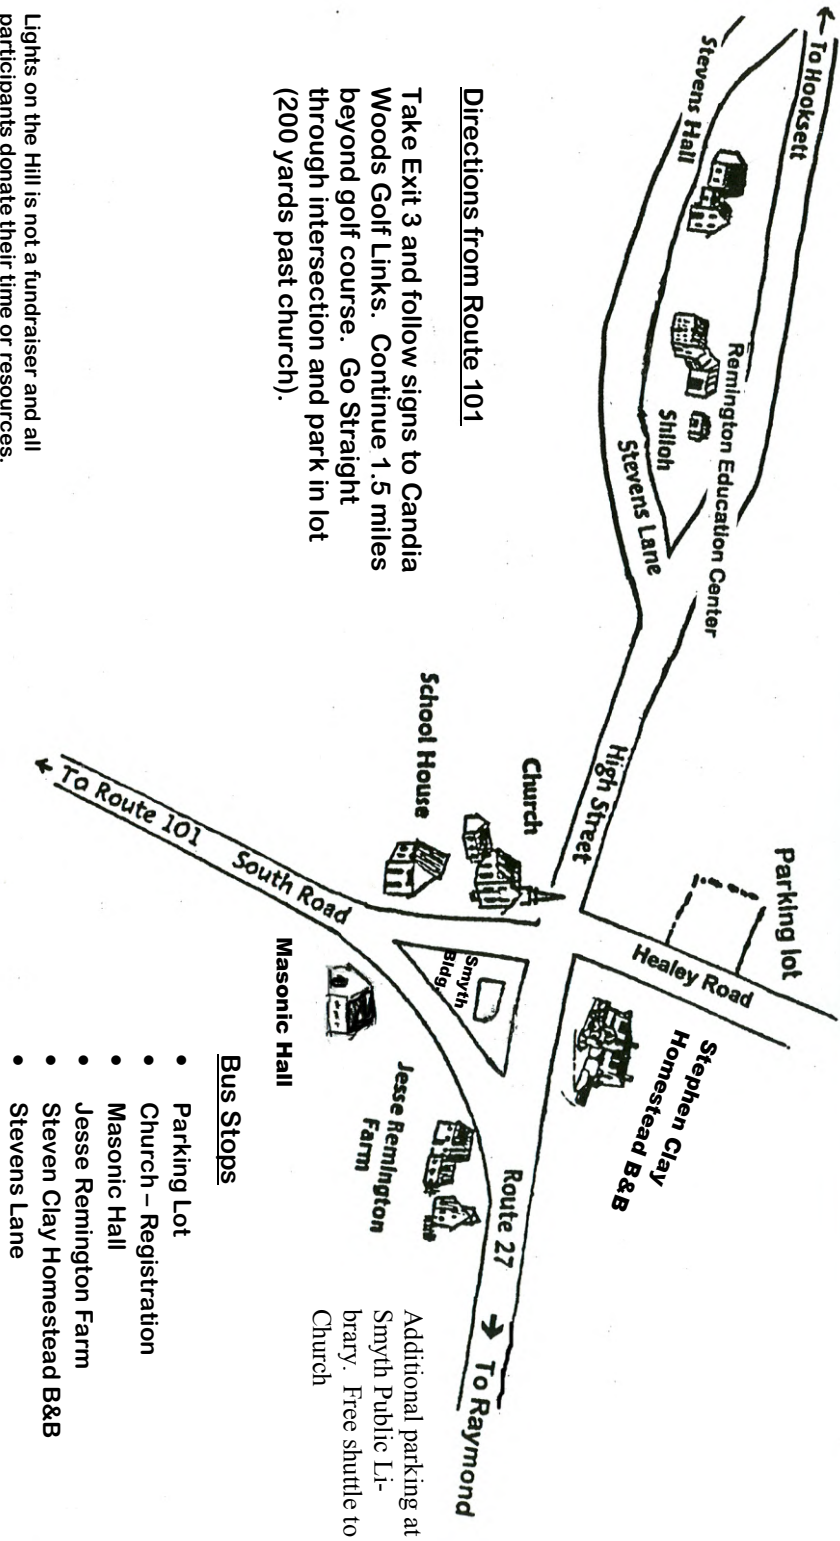

Saturday
December 12, 2015
1:00-8:00 p.m.

Free Admission

Festivities will begin at the corner of
Route 27 (High Street) and South Road
Candia, NH

Help us with a donation of winter hats, gloves, or socks
for a local outreach program

For more information, call
Candia Congregational Church (603) 483-0506
www.CandiaCongregational.org

Lights on the Hill is not a fundraiser and all participants donate their time or resources. All profits go into a separate Lights on the Hill bank account to help defray expenses.

★ Enjoy a moment of acoustic music while sipping a warm cup of cappuccino at the Coffee House from 5-8 pm.

★ Granite State Cloggers will dance.

★ Come enjoy the talents of the students of Jesse Remington High School.

★ Come do crafts with Candia Clovers 4H!

★ Children can decorate their own yummy Gingerbread Man with the help of the Candia Girls Scouts.

★ Visit the Heritage Commission and view crèches from all over the world in the historic Smyth Building.

★ Moore School students will entertain you with chorus and instrumentals.

★ Come to the Barn to see the animals and listen to the story of the first Christmas.

★ Come listen to the Concord Coachmen sing a cappella.

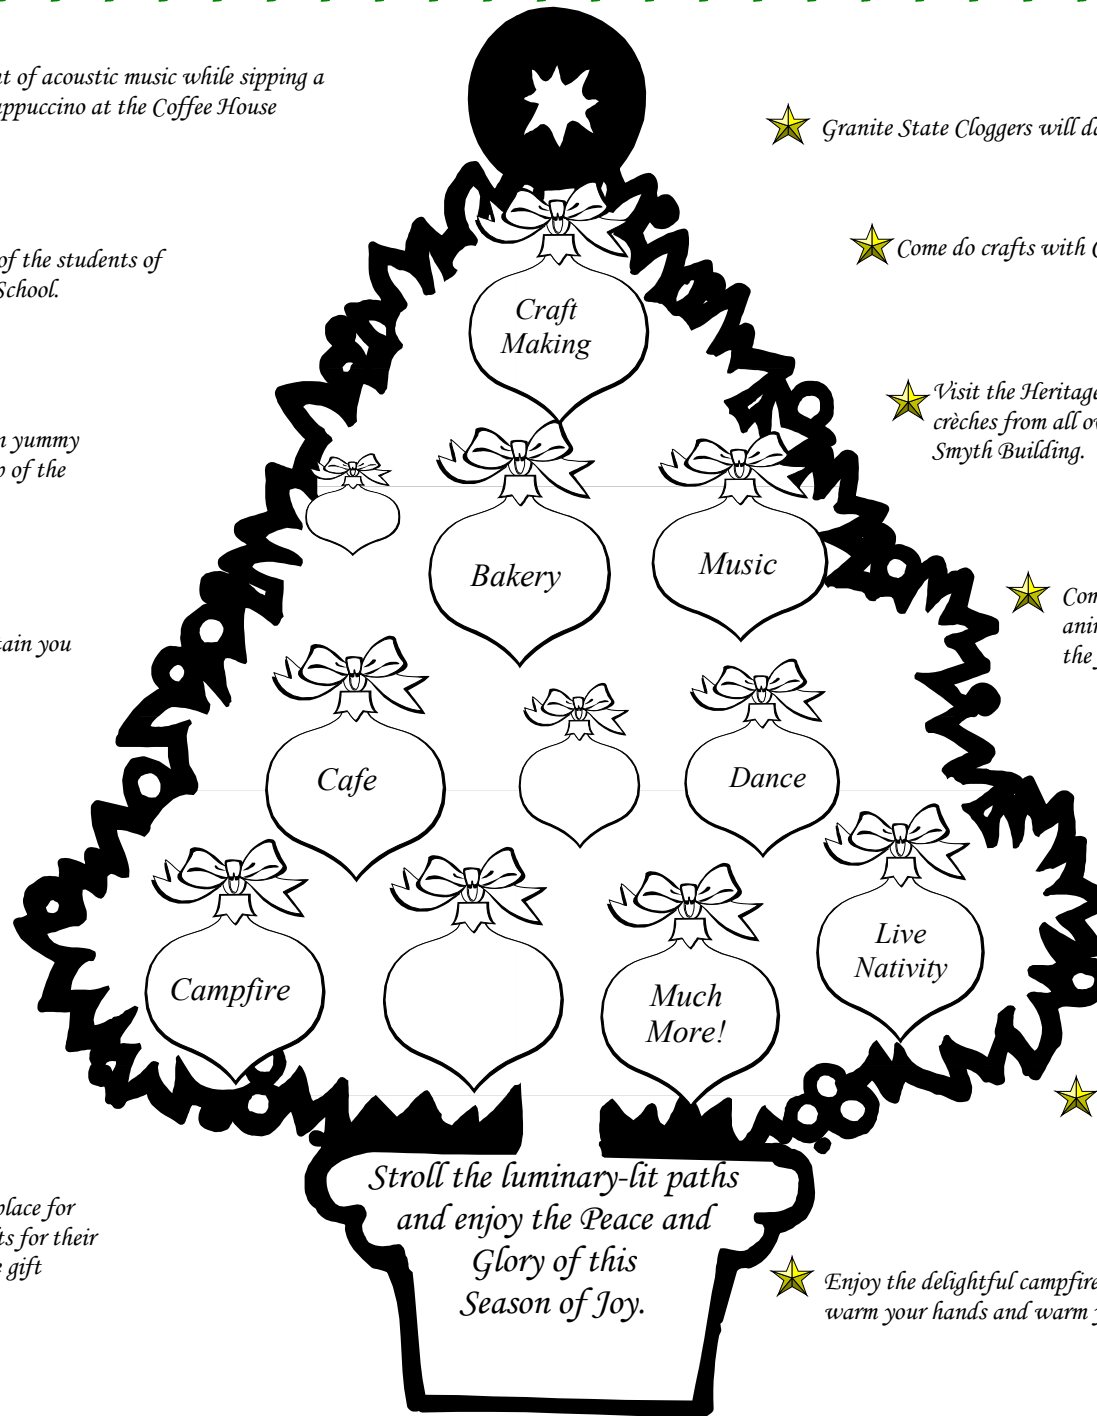

★ Come listen to the Nicole Murphy sing!

★ Have your picture taken by the Christmas tree!

★ Rest your feet and purchase a light supper in our Christmas Café.

★ The Christmas Store is a delightful place for children to purchase inexpensive gifts for their family. Elves will help with the free gift wrapping.

★ Enjoy the delightful campfire by toasting a marshmallow, or warm your hands and warm your heart by Christmas caroling.

Stroll the luminary-lit paths and enjoy the Peace and Glory of this Season of Joy.