Political Advertising

Section 664:14

664:14 Signature, Identification, and Lack of Authorization. –

- I. All political advertising shall be signed at the beginning or the end with the names and addresses of the candidate, his fiscal agent, or the name and address of the chairman or the treasurer of a political committee, or the name and address of a natural person, according to whether a candidate, political committee, or natural person is responsible for it. Said signature shall clearly designate the name of the candidate, party or political committee by or on whose behalf the same is published or broadcast.
- II. Political advertising to promote the success or defeat of a measure by a business organization, labor union, or other enterprise or organization shall be signed. The name of the enterprise or organization shall be indicated and the chairman or treasurer of the enterprise or organization shall sign his name and address. Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit contributions which are prohibited under RSA 664:4.
- III. In the case of printed or written matter, the signature and address of signer shall be printed or written in a size of type or lettering large enough to be clearly legible.
- IV. (a) In the case of political advertising broadcast on radio, television, or any public address system, the name and address of the signer shall be clearly identified.
- (b) All political advertising broadcast on television shall identify the name of the candidate who pays for the advertisement or whose advertisement is paid for by a campaign committee. Such identification shall be made both aurally and visually. The visual presentation shall be clearly legible and shall use letters equal to or greater than 12 percent of the vertical picture height and shall air for not less than 4 seconds at the conclusion of the broadcast. For the purpose of this section, "campaign committee" means any committee established to elect a particular candidate to office, including raising funds for that purpose.
- V. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, buttons or any printed or written political advertising which is attached to or displayed on any motor vehicle need not be signed.
- VI. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, any advertising in support of or in opposition to a candidate by a political committee shall comply with this paragraph. If the advertising is not authorized by the candidate or candidate committee, the advertising shall so state and shall identify the sponsor of the advertisement. All such political advertising shall include the statement: "This advertisement has been paid for by (name of sponsor) and has not been authorized by any candidate." Such statement shall be made both aurally and visually if broadcast on television. The visual presentation on television shall be clearly legible and shall use letters equal to or greater than 12 percent of the vertical picture height and shall be broadcast for not less than 4 seconds at the conclusion of the advertisement.
- VII. Any advertising which is not political advertising because it does not advocate the success or defeat of a party, measure, or person, but which mentions or depicts a candidate, shall include the

Section 664:17

664:17 Placement and Removal of Political Advertising. – No political advertising shall be placed on or affixed to any public property including highway rights-of-way or private property without the owner's consent. All political advertising shall be removed by the candidate no later than the second Friday following the election unless the election is a primary and the advertising concerns a candidate who is a winner in the primary. Signs shall not be placed on or affixed to utility poles or highway signs. Political advertising may be placed within state-owned rights-of-way as long as the advertising does not obstruct the safe flow of traffic and the advertising is placed with the consent of the owner of the land over which the right-of-way passes. No person shall remove, deface, or knowingly destroy any political advertising which is placed on or affixed to public property or any private property except for removal by the owner of the property, persons authorized by the owner of the property, or a law enforcement officer removing improper advertising. Political advertising placed on or affixed to any public property may be removed by state, city, or town maintenance or law enforcement personnel. Political advertising removed prior to election day by state, city, or town maintenance or law enforcement personnel shall be kept until one week after the election at a place designated by the state, city, or town so that the candidate may retrieve the items.

Susan Young, Chair
Board of Selectmen
Candia Town Offices
74 High Street
Candia, NH 03034

Dear Ms. Young,

Following the Selectmen's consideration of the matter at its July 10 meeting, the Candia Heritage Commission discussed the importance of recognizing Candia's veterans, specifically, those who have served in conflicts not included on the Soldier's Monument on High Street.

At present, the monument's inscribed panels honor residents who fought in the Revolutionary War, the French-Indian War (1756), the War of 1812, the Mexican War of 1847, the Civil War ("War of the Rebellion"), and World War I.

The monument notes the number of those who served and identifies by name the Candia residents killed in action.

There have been past efforts by various town groups and individuals to add World War II, Korean War and Vietnam War mentions. Toward that end, the Commission is submitting an initial recommendation regarding monument wording, pending additional information acquired through ongoing research. (For example, data may reveal additional deaths in WW I.)

On the south-facing surface under the World War I inscription, we suggest adding:

IN HONOR OF 60 MEN OF CANDIA WHO SERVED IN WORLD WAR II
KILLED IN ACTION
FRANCIS C PITMAN

IN HONOR OF 13 MEN AND WOMEN WHO SERVED IN THE KOREAN WAR

IN HONOR OF ALL FROM CANDIA WHO SERVED IN THE VIETNAM WAR
