Ryan will be providing a spreadsheet going forward and keep an electronic copy of invoices being paid, a separate spreadsheet will be done for the Barry Conservation camp/calendars.

6. Water Resources: Dick spoke in regards to the “subject of Conservation Easement area” in back of Copart. Chair Judi or Ryan will contact Tom Severino and Bruce Gilday for dates in April he may be available to discuss ARM projects before the next meeting.

Old Business:

1. Planning Board presentation: Info. will be on the website. (Take off agenda).
2. GIS mapping program: still in process.
3. Cons. Land New Boston Road-Lewis Memorial Bridge: BOS has approved the name change, but if we decide to do an easement it will have to go before the voters. Vice chair Leon is working on the sign and passed around a picture for members to see.

New Business:

1. ARM Fund project ideas: Commission is working on, see above.
2. Aquatic Resource Mitigation packet: will be included with #1 ARM Fund project(s).

Other Business:

1. Barry Camp update: Calendar sales are only available from the Town Clerk due to having the Library still under renovation.
2. Scheduled hikes/trail work: Nothing being planned currently.
3. Secretary's salary issue/BOS meeting: April 11th

Dick was concerned that the Eagle Project was approved by the BOS on a property that is maintained by the CCC. He also feels that signs and posts that are available should/could be installed on properties maintained by the CCC.

Tom motioned to adjourn @ 8:50 p.m. Betsy second. No further discussion.
