New Business:

Old Business:

- Nate Miller – Impact Fees

Nate Miller – SNHPC – (Please see attached presentation.)

- InvestNH HOP Updates – Steering Committee – Cam Prolman

Cam Prolman – SNHPC – (Please see attached presentation.)

T. D’Arcy: The Board hasn’t really had a chance to digest this. After the last meeting when I did have a phone call with SNHPC, they assured us. As quickly as possible. They say they are committing the resources to it.

K. Coughlin: There is a termination date on this grant, what is that date?

C. Prolman: The date is July 31st. If they are still unaddressed by the 31st, we...we won’t be penalized by NH Housing.

Sylvia – Executive Director of SNHPC – I can assure you that this will be a fantastic document. We are very much committed to this project and to the town.

- Approval of Minutes, 5.15.24

Motion to approve as submitted K. Coughlin. Second: S. Komisarek. All were in favor. Motion passed.

- Approval of Minutes, 6.5.24 – Postponed until next meeting.

Other Business:

- Town Planning

B. Brock: The Safety Facility Committee met last night. Tom Severino did present. The committee agreed that it was a bad band aid. One gentleman brought up the fact that there are a lot more grants and funding when you have a fire department involved. Our next meeting is in August. (Please see attached Safety Facility Meeting Minutes)

- Any other matter to come before the Board.

Some continued discussion about impact fees.

Motion to Adjourn: K. Coughlin. Second: L. Carroll. All were in favor. Motion passed.

Meeting adjourned – 7:19 PM

Respectfully submitted,

Amy M. Spencer
